Concept

Feuille is a nature-inspired French fine-dining destination in Central, built on Chef David Toutain's philosophy of letting the natural world lead the culinary narrative. With Head Chef Léo Daull and Sous Chef Alexandre Terrier at the helm, Feuille elevates local, seasonal ingredients through precise French technique and artistic presentation—celebrating nature as a complete, living ecosystem.

Sustainability is at the core of the experience: Feuille embraces local sourcing and a responsible approach to dining, with a menu designed to transform ingredients with care and minimal waste.

At Feuille, "Menu Habitat" is a dining narrative guided by ingredients drawn from distinct natural environments. Each course is expressed through standout signature creations that combine refined French technique with a deep respect for seasonality, place, and the living ecosystem.
